Description

Much of the world's philosophy has historically been ignored by the West. Yet, if philosophy is a love of wisdom, there is no doubt that the philosophy of cultures from all locations and times can enrich us. This course will explore some of the philosophical contributions from the rest of the globe, focusing on India, China, and the Muslim world.

Outline

Week One

Introduction: Eastern and Western Thought

Week Two

Indian Philosophy

Week Three

Chinese Philosophy

Week Four

Philosophy of the Islamic World and Conclusion

Suggested Reading

How the World Thinks: A Global History of Philosophy by Julian Baggini
