

THE LAZY PHILOSOPHER'S GUIDE TO RELIGION

[DAY COURSE]

Date

Tuesday 22nd November 2022
10.15am until 4pm

Venue

The Birmingham & Midland Institute
Margaret Street
Birmingham
B3 3BS

Fee

£36

Level

Beginners to Intermediate

Description

The course consists of lectures and debate on the philosophy of religion. It aims to provide a grounding in the central questions about religion which have concerned philosophers for two and a half thousand years. The questions discussed on the course will include: Can the existence of God be proved? Is belief in God compatible with the amount of suffering in the world?

Outline

10.15am - 11.25am	Religious belief and the philosophy of religion
11.25am - 11.35am	Break
11.35am - 12.45pm	Natural theology
12.45pm - 1.30pm	Lunch break
1.30pm - 2.40pm	Challenges to theism
2.40pm - 2.50pm	Break
2.50pm - 4pm	Alternative approaches to the philosophy of religion

Suggested Reading

Philosophy of Religion by Mel Thompson

Booking

To book a place on this course please email darrenharper.esq@gmail.com

darrenharper.net