Description

Does religion still play an important part in Western societies? Taking inspiration from Alain de Botton's book, Religion for Atheists, this course will begin by laying down the foundations of the philosophy of religion before exploring what religion can still contribute to a modern society, from an atheist's point of view.

Outline

Week One	Introduction
Week Two	God: The Concepts and the Arguments
Week Three	Suffering and Evil
Week Four	The Self and Psychology
Week Five	Atheism and Humanism
Week Six	Wisdom without Doctrine
Week Seven	Community and Society
Week Eight	Education and Perspective
Week Nine	Art and Architecture
Week Ten	Meditation, Mindfulness and Conclusion

Suggested Reading

Philosophy of Religion by Mel Thompson Religion for Atheists by Alain de Botton
