Description

The 'Age of Reason' gave birth to the scientific age. The victory of rational, scientific discovery over dogma once again disinterred the possibilities of philosophy, and such thinkers as Descartes, Hume and Kant emerged. This course will investigate these thinkers and some of their most important works.

Outline

Week One	Introduction and the Enlightenment
Week Two	René Descartes
Week Three	René Descartes and the Meditations
Week Four	David Hume
Week Five	David Hume and An Enquiry Concerning Human Understanding
Week Six	Immanuel Kant, the Critique of Pure Reason and Conclusion

Essential Reading

Meditations by René Descartes and An Enquiry Concerning Human Understanding by David Hume
