Description

Much of the world's philosophy has historically been ignored by the West. Yet, if philosophy is the love of wisdom, there is no doubt that the philosophy of other cultures can enrich us further still. This half-day course will explore one of the main schools of Chinese philosophy, Daoism, and then consider its value to modern Western society.

Outline

1pm - 2.25pm	Eastern Philosophy and Daoism
2.25pm - 2.35pm	Break
2.35pm - 3pm	What can the Tao Te Ching teach us today?
