

THE AGE OF REVOLUTION

[FOUR WEEK COURSE]

Dates

28th Apr, 5th, 19th & 26th May 2022

[N.B. no class 12th May]

Thursdays 1pm until 2.30pm BST [12:00 until 13:30 UTC]

Venue

On-line / Zoom

Fees

36 GBP | 43 EUR | 49 USD

Level

Beginners to Intermediate

Description

During the 'Age of Revolution', philosophy focused increasingly on social and political issues. In Britain, the new utilitarianism dominated and evolved alongside the Industrial Revolution, resulting in, through the efforts of Bentham and Mill, a liberal democracy. The situation in France, however, was less stable...

Outline

Week One	Introduction and Voltaire
Week Two	Jean-Jacques Rousseau
Week Three	Jeremy Bentham and J. S. Mill
Week Four	Mary Wollstonecraft and Conclusion

Suggested Reading

The Social Contract by Jean-Jacques Rousseau, On Liberty by J. S. Mill and A Vindication of the Rights of Woman by Mary Wollstonecraft.

Booking

To book a place on this course, please email darrenharper.esq@gmail.com

darrenharper.net