

A CRASH COURSE IN PHILOSOPHY: POLITICS & ETHICS

[HALF-DAY COURSE]

Date

Tuesday 21st June 2022
12.30pm until 3.30pm

Venue

Morrab Library
Morrab Gardens
Penzance
Cornwall
TR18 4DA

Fee

£22

Level

Beginners to Intermediate

Description

Formerly philosophy was the preserve of PhDs and the intellectually precocious, until now. In this half-day course we will disinter a little of philosophy's hermetic meaning as we unpick political philosophy, meeting Thomas Hobbes and Jean-Jacques Rousseau, before exploring ethics (moral philosophy), with Immanuel Kant, J. S. Mill and Aristotle.

Outline

12.30pm - 2pm	Political Philosophy
2pm - 2.15pm	Break
2.15pm - 3.30pm	Ethics

Suggested Reading

Philosophy: A Very Short Introduction by Edward Craig

Booking

To book a place on this course please email darrenharper.esq@gmail.com

darrenharper.net