

THE PHILOSOPHY AND LITERATURE OF ALBERT CAMUS

[FOUR WEEK COURSE]

Dates

24th, 31st January, 7th and 28th February 2023
Tuesdays 7pm until 8.30pm GMT [19:00 until 20:30 UTC]
[N.B. No classes 14th or 23rd February]

Venue

On-line / Zoom

Fee

36 GBP | 42 EUR | 45 USD | 60 CAD

Level

Beginners to Intermediate

Description

"Man is the only creature who refuses to be what he is." - Albert Camus.
In this on-line course we will delve into the life, literature and philosophy of Existentialist philosopher Albert Camus. Using two of his most famous novels, The Outsider and The Plague, we will explore the concepts of Freedom, the Absurd, and the Meaning of Life.

Outline

Week One	Introduction, Life and Context
Week Two	The Outsider
Week Three	Existentialism and the Absurd
Week Four	The Plague and Conclusion

Suggested Reading

The Outsider and The Plague by Albert Camus

Booking

To book a place on this course, please email darrenharper.esq@gmail.com

darrenharper.net